WAS IN HIDING IN IWILEI

Fugitive for Ten Days—Declares He is Innocent—Chillingworth's Detective Work.Ed. Aldrich, the young man charged with manufacturing currency by photography, was landed in the city prison at 1:30 o'clock this morning. He had been a fugitive for ten days. Aldrich had run away from a painting job he was engaged upon when he saw Marshal Brown. It happened that on that day Aldrich's room on Nuuanu street had been searched with the result of finding some of the bad money and negatives for printing unlimited quantities of it.The capture of Aldrich was effected entirely through the application and alertness of Deputy Marshal Chilling-worth. This is the best piece of work the brilliant young officer has done. At 7 last evening Chillingworth was in a native neighborhood near the Chinatown fire station. He heard Hawaiians talking of a foreigner in hiding. In ten minutes Chillingworth had six men of the locality under arrest.From his Hawaiian prisoners Chilling-worth learned that a man supposed to be Aldrich was in hiding in the upper room of No. 40 wash house, in the Ewa flat of Government laundries in Iwilei.It was quite late when Chillingworth had confirmed his belief, based on scraps of fact and guess from the natives. The officer organized a detail of four and started for the retreat of the fugitive. Capt. Kanea went right beside the Deputy Marshal. Espindola was stationed on the roof, near a window.
Jackson and Baker guarded doors and windows on the ground floor. Then noise was made purposely to awaken Aldrich.Aldrich is a sound sleeper, but in a few seconds he was heard to move about quietly. Next a window rattled.
Espindola called "Halt!" three times and fired a pistol shot. Aldrich was trying for the window and the revolver report. Chillingworth and the very close, started up the very narrow stairway. Aldrich appeared at the head. Chillingworth, with a pistol in one hand and a strong light in the other, spoke. Aldrich threw up his hands, fell to his knees and said: "I surrender." The prisoner was hurried to the station.Called upon in his cell, Aldrich did not care to talk. He said that what he had to tell would be brought out in the trial. "I am innocent. I never made any of that money. I never was in the business. I would have things in my room after they had searched only lately?" When asked why he ran away, Aldrich said he believed the people of the police department were prejudiced against him and would be unjust. "I have seen your paper nearly every day," he said, "so I know what has been going on and what has been said. Everything that seems to point to my guilt can be explained. I will make a satisfactory case before a jury." Aldrich has money and can hire good counsel.Chillingworth says that Aldrich has paid natives and Chinamen who have brought him food with some of the bad money. Aldrich looked unkempt and half starved, but says he has not missed a meal. Some bread was found in the room and a thin counterpane for bedding. The room has been unoccupied a long time. He has not been in the laundry all the time. The police believe that at least one white man has been helping him. He proposed to escape on one of the big steamers leaving at night.Bills made by photography appeared first here about three months ago.
Marshal Brown and Chester A. Doyle took the case and to the satisfaction of themselves traced the spurious currency to Aldrich. His room was searched, but nothing found. Ten days ago the search was rewarded. Half a dozen of the bills have reached the banks and a score or more have been passed on Chinese shop keepers.Aldrich is an expert photographer and chemist. He was at one time on the police force as a detective. The money was made by the blue print process.On Saturday next Company D, N. G.
H., will begin a series prize shoot for three trophies.

TYPHOID IN THE PAST.

Office of the Board of Health, Honolulu, H. I., Oct. 29, 1898.EDITOR ADVERTISER.—The following is a comparative annual report of the mortality from typhoid fever in Honolulu since January 1st, 1894.
In connection with this report I would state that more than half the deaths were of Japanese, many of them non-residents.

Yours respectfully,

C. B. REYNOLDS,
Executive Officer Board of Health.The official statement above tells directly of the course of typhoid fever here for five years. It shows an average of thirteen deaths a year, with a very heavy percentage of Japanese plantation coolies.There are now more than fifty cases of typhoid fever in the United States military hospital here and there have been quite a number of deaths. The camps at Kapiolani Park and Diamond Head were established less than three months ago.

FLOATING OPIUM.

Capture of 450 Tins By Customs Guards.This morning at 2 o'clock one of the customs guards was walking on the shore near the Pacific Mail wharf when he noticed three men in the water.The moon was shining brightly at the time and the guard noticed that they were white men. The guard asked them what they were doing and they replied, "Oh, taking a little swim." Just then the guard noticed something floating in the water and his suspicions were at once aroused. Stepping to the water's edge, he picked up the end of a rope. As he reached for the rope the men started to run and he immediately blew his whistle for assistance, but by the time help arrived at the place the men had disappeared.The officers turned their attention to the floating object and, to their surprise, found canvas bags which were tied together and contained 450 cans of opium.It is believed that the opium was taken from the Arizona. It is "Hongkong" and worth $30 a pound, $15 a tin, a total of $6,750. The reward to the men who made the capture is $1 a pound.Mahelona, one of the oldest and best guards, trusted and liked by all the officers, is the man to whose vigilance is due the heavy haul. W. F. Storey was captain of the watch at the time.

CHINESE LOTTERIES.

Start Up Again, But Had Short Life.Word was quietly passed around among the Chinese during the later part of last week that two pakapo lottery games would be opened for business on Saturday.The Chinese backers of the games had made their boasts that they would have the games in operation and be immune from police interference, as they had "bought" several members of the force.Informers communicated the facts to Marshal Brown and he assigned Deputy Chillingworth to work on the case.
The Deputy was not long in landing his game and twenty-one Chinamen were registered on the blotter at police headquarters.Nearly all the accused are out on $500 bail each. Their cases will probably be called this morning.

Dr. Sloggett's Brother.

Among the British officers wounded at the great battle of Omdurman was Lieut.-Col. A. T. Sloggett, R. A. M. C., a surgeon with a brilliant record and only brother of the well known local physician, Dr. H. C. Sloggett. The intrepid surgeon sustained a gunshot wound through his chest, but at latest accounts was doing well and has been removed to London.

Had a Good Time.

Geo. L. Dall, the contractor, is home again after a most enjoyable trip to the Coast. Mr. Dall went up for a rest, but was kept quite busy while in San Francisco. He was entertained by the Knights of Pythias, the Odd Fellows and, of course, by the Scots. On one occasion a Pythian banquet was given in his honor. Mr. Dall was not ill when he left, but gained much vigor by the voyage and the stay in the cooling breezes of San Francisco.

NEWPORT AND GEN. MILLER

Tacoma to Bring More Mules—New Condenser—Arrival of Rio at San Francisco.SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—The transports Ohio and Indiana will probably not be ready to sail for Manila until next Wednesday or Thursday, the 25th or 26th. The formal order assigning the troops to the Indiana was issued from department headquarters last night. Thirty-one officers and 756 enlisted men are going.The Newport is now ready, but will be held for some time until Gen. Miller and staff, who have been assigned to her, are ready to sail.The City of Puebla is expected hourly and will be used as the transport to carry such troops as remain after the Ohio, Indiana, Newport, Pennsylvania, and Zealandia are filled up. The Rio Janeiro, Peru and City of Para will be discharged.The sailing vessel Tacoma, to go to Honolulu with mules, is at the Union Iron Works, having a new condenser put in. She probably will not be ready for twenty days.The steamship Rio Janeiro arrived this morning from Manila, via Hongkong and Nagasaki. The vessel had on board 151 sick soldiers from the Philippines, and at 11 o'clock the invalids were discharged from a tug at the Presidio wharf. On the voyage over eight of the men died. Two of the unfortunates were members of the First California Regiment. Their names were Stuber and Fiske. Private Fiske's body was embalmed and brought to this port, but the body of Private Stuber was buried at sea.It was a sad sight to see the sick men brought ashore. A number of ambulances were at hand to convey the sufferers to the Marine and Presidio Hospitals. Willing hands were stretched forth to lift the litters.
